

The chart displays the annual number of publications for six countries from 2000 to 2018. The y-axis has a scale break, with values 100, 1500, and 2000. The x-axis is labeled 'Year' and ranges from 2000 to 2018. The legend identifies the countries by color: China (blue), USA (green), Germany (purple), France (brown), Japan (orange), and Korea (pink). China and the USA show the most dramatic peaks in 2002 and 2008. France shows a more gradual but consistent increase over the period.
